

Qualify for membership expense coverage by running panels!

*Text in this color have been updated and changed from last year and should be reviewed by all new and previous panelists

We are happy to announce that fan panelists will have the opportunity to qualify for membership expense coverage by running panels.

Fan panelists can be eligible for reimbursement of their badge cost by providing content that teaches about Asian culture, or how Asian culture has been influenced by their media.

Please be advised, tutorial panels are not eligible through fan panel reimbursement. If you would like to provide a tutorial and are a trusted member of the Asian cultural community, please reach out to publicity@sakuracon.org for more information on becoming a cultural presenter.

Requirements

- You must be 18 or older.
- You must already be registered
- You must provide at least 3 hours of on-topic programming that reflects Sakura-Con's mission of the "understanding of Asian culture through the use of traditional and contemporary media." Although Sakura-Con is filled with many different types of pop culture, the panels that qualify toward membership expense coverage must be focused around teaching and sharing Asian culture.
 - Off-topic panels will not receive membership expense coverage.
- You may also provide 2 additional hours of panels on-topic to gain an additional badge for a third co-panelist.

Examples of panels that would qualify toward membership expense coverage:

- The Evolution of Anime Art Aesthetics
- Cosplay as Culture

Panel types that would NOT qualify toward membership expense coverage:

- "Ask" type character panels
- Dating games and game shows or games in general

- Cosplay panels, unless it is about its impact on Japanese culture, or cosplay as a cultural art form.
- Any panel that is about comics/cartoons/pop culture that does not relate to Japan/Asia (ex: Futurama, Homestuck, Star Wars, Adventure Time) unless it's expressly about how Japan/Asia has influenced the media or vice versa.

Some examples of panels that will not receive membership expense coverage:

- Drawing Anime Art
- Cosplay 101

If have questions on whether your panel qualifies for membership expense coverage, you can email panels@sakuracon.org with your panel and content before you submit your panel and we will let you know.

Restrictions

- ❖ For the minimum of required hours, only two members of your group will qualify for membership expense coverage.
 - Everyone receiving the membership expense coverage must be 18 or older.
 - Make sure you list your co-panelist on the panel submission form if you want them to also want them to qualify to have their membership expense covered. If you are running panels by yourself, then you will only be eligible to have your membership expense covered.
 - You may NOT list a friend as a co-panelist in order to get their membership expense covered if they are not hosting the panel with you. The Panel Moderators will have lists of the panelists and will be checking for any abuses of the system.
- ❖ More hours can mean more memberships; if you have two co-panelists, you must all run 5 hours of culturally relevant content. If a third member of your group submits 3 different hours of qualified programming under their name, then they would be eligible by themselves.
- ❖ Panelists are not eligible for any other coverage in relation to convention attendance or panel related expenses

Anyone who uses this system to qualify for membership expense coverage, but does not fulfill their responsibility will have a one-year panel ban, their membership pulled if we find you during the convention

Notification

Panelists will be notified if they qualified for membership reimbursement once the schedule is set and all panels have been approved in March once the schedule has been finalized and acceptance emails have been sent out. If you haven't heard from us by March 25th, but feel that you qualify, please contact the Panels Coordinator at panels@sakuracon.org.
