 Two-way traffic begins/ends

The Washington State Convention Center has changed its name to Seattle Convention Center. The main convention space for Sakura-Con 2023 is the SCC's new Summit Building at 900 Pine St.

The original Convention Center building is now called Arch at 705 Pike. Level 2 and all but one room of Level 3 are not used by Sakura-Con 2023. The Conference Center is now called Arch at 800 Pike, but this building is also unused.

 Sound Transit Link Light Rail station

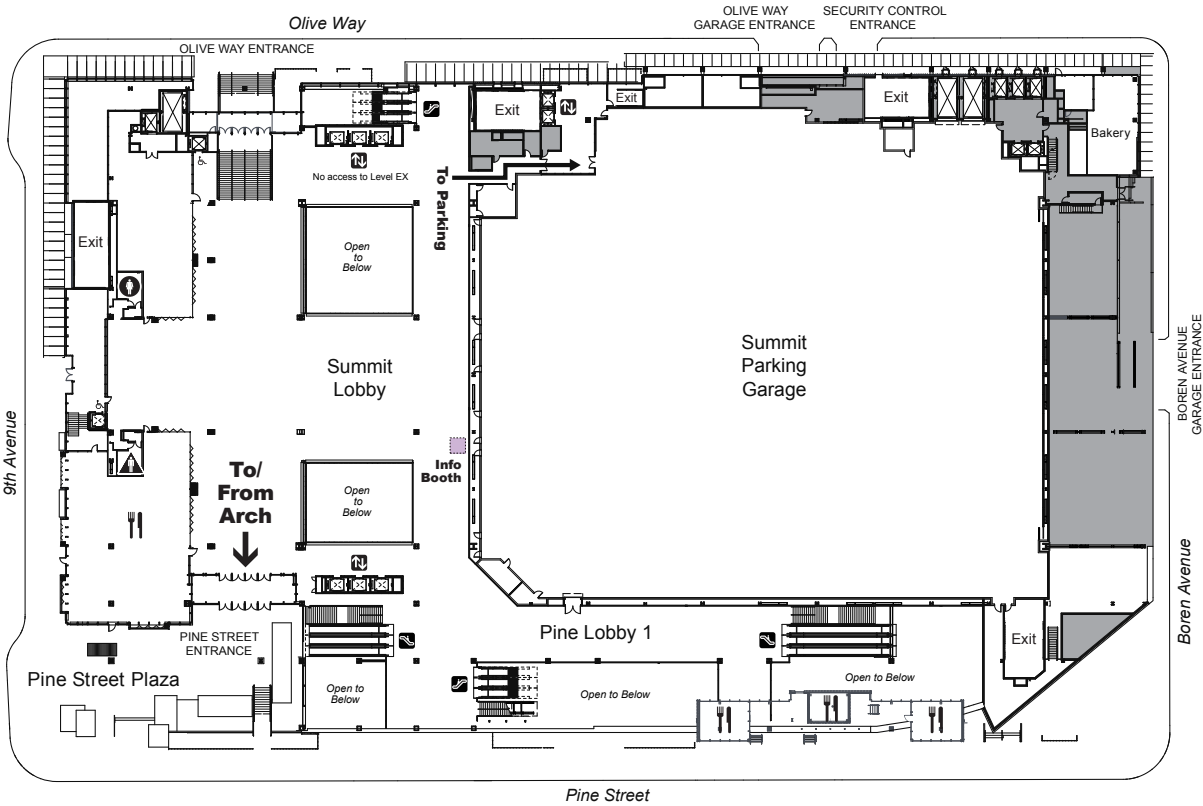

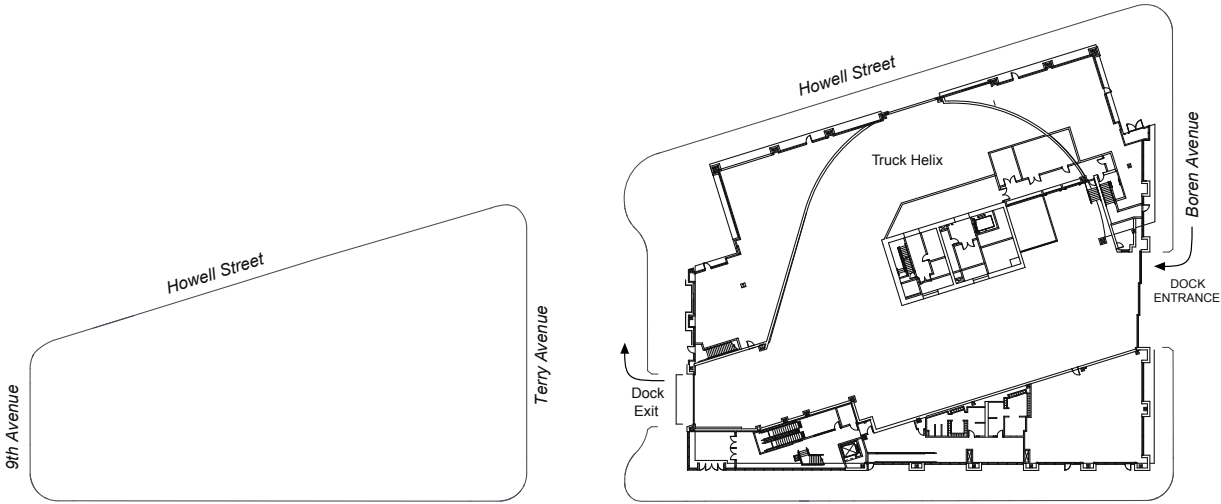

Light rail provides rapid transit between downtown Seattle and Sea-Tac Airport with a travel time of approximately 38 minutes. For fares, schedules and complete details, see www.soundtransit.org.
